BARGAIN of the Week

Sydney Morning Herald, GOOD LIVING July 28, 2009

2008 FIVE FAMILIES Riesling (ORANGE) 89/100

Lifted Mineral and citrus aromas with good freshness and primary fruit, it's lean and light, dry to close, with some delicacy and a slight grip to the finish which works well.

Now to two years

Food: Pan fried white fleshed fish

"...a big honkin' red..."

2006 FIVE FAMILIES Shiraz

"Barbecued grub requires a big honkin' red like 2006 Penmara Five Families Shiraz. With it's aromas of fleshy plums and blackberries, it muscles in nicely beside smoky, robust flavours - hamburgers and steak that would clobber a fine Bordeaux or Burgundy. Leave the fancy wines and your fancy clothes at home. The only stain more stubborn than rib sauce is shiraz."
