International Wine Challenge 2010

One of the world's premier wine events took place in London in May, and as part of this trade show, they also conducted a major wine challenge, with wines entered from all over the world.

Our wines showed very well and it is a great accomplishment to secure these awards amongst such great competition!

2009 PENMARA FIVE FAMILIES RIESLING BRONZE MEDAL

2007 PENMARA RESERVE SHIRAZ COMMENDATION

“i tort i taw a pooty cat!”

TWEET...TWEET... For those of a certain generation these words just remind us of a little yellow bird.

But to those in the know, it is a new form of communication. Where it ends up no one is really sure, but we might as well jump on the bandwagon.

So if you are interested in the thoughts and ravings of the Five Families take a look and become one of our followers... www.twitter.com/penmarawines

We cannot promise valuable insights into the Middle East situation, or whether greater government regulation is the best way to move forward into an unknown economic future, but it should be a bit of fun.

At the very least, you will be the first to find out any news or updates from the Five Families of Penmara ... and really, who does not want to know this!
